Teacher's homepage

The screenshot shows a web interface for a teacher's homepage. At the top, there are navigation tabs for 'my queue', 'Head of School', and 'Reminders'. The main content is divided into several sections:

- Today's Announcements: Contains an announcement from Ken Randell (KRI) about an inset day on April 11, 2005, organized by Inclusion Services. A callout points to this section with the text 'work related messages'.
- New Messages: Lists several messages from Mark Baker (MBJ) and May Morris (MMJ) regarding inset days and departmental homepages. A callout points to this section with the text 'teacher's messages'.
- Tomorrow's Announcements: Contains another announcement from Ken Randell (KRI) about the same inset day. A callout points to this section with the text 'tomorrow's bulletin'.
- Calendar: Shows an event for 'Inset Day' on Monday, April 11, 2005, at 08:30. A callout points to this section with the text 'school calendar'.
- School Daily Bulletin: A callout points to the 'Today's Announcements' section with the text 'school daily bulletin'.

Communicating

This block shows three different communication forms:

- Report a Facilities Item: A form with fields for 'Item Title', 'Other Title', 'Item Location', and 'Other Location', and a text area for 'Describe item (max 200 chars)'. It includes a 'Back' button.
- Report an IT Item: A similar form with an additional 'Item Type' dropdown menu. It includes 'Back' and 'Report Item' buttons.
- Send message to TIGT (Year 7 Drama): A form for sending a message to a group of users. It includes a 'Send' button, a 'Recipients' list, and a 'Message' text area. A callout points to the 'Recipients' list with the text 'who is this for?'.
